Rules and Regulations

1. Setup complete and ready to vend at 9:30am on the day of the festival. Vendors are responsible for their own setup and tear down, although volunteers may be available to help you load in/out. All booth spaces must be occupied until at least 5pm and be vacated by 7pm.
2. Specific setup areas will be assigned for merchandise vendors & organizations. Requests for particular areas for special needs will be reviewed and will take priority over other requests; nothing is guaranteed.
3. The Pagan Pride Day schedule, all important contacts, and a map of the Pagan Pride Day area will be provided to all vendors within three days of the event.
4. Sexually explicit and dangerous items are strictly prohibited.
5. Vendors who would like to offer demonstrations of their products are asked to include a separate page description so, we can review and add it to the event's schedule. Offering a short demonstration at your booth can draw in more traffic.
6. Any vendors engaging in any illegal activity, consumption of illegal drugs, or harassment of people will be asked to leave or escorted from property.
