Rules and Regulations

1. Setup begins at 8:00am on the day of the festival. Vendors are responsible for their own setup and tear down, although volunteers may be available to help you load in/out. All booth spaces must be occupied until at least 5pm and be vacated by 7pm.
2. Specific setup areas will be assigned for merchandise vendors & organizations. Readers will be allowed to set up within the Gardens where they desire as long as they are not blocking another vendor or the stage area. Requests for particular areas for special needs will be reviewed, and will take priority over other requests; nothing is guaranteed. It's important that you let us know if you need access to electricity, as there are only so many outlets in the vending areas.
3. The Pagan Pride Day schedule, all important contacts, and a map of the Pagan Pride Day area will be provided to all vendors within three days of the event.
4. No sexually explicit or dangerous items can be in view of the public; however, items can be kept hidden from view and produced once someone has inquired about them. Signs indicating adult items may be placed on the table. Please ask if you have questions.
5. Vendors who would like to offer demonstrations of their products are asked to include a separate page description so we can review and add it to the event's schedule. Offering a short demonstration at your booth can draw in more traffic.
6. Any vendors engaging in any illegal activity, consumption of illegal drugs, or harassment of people will be asked to leave or escorted from property by police.
7. No refunds after September 23, 2022. Refund requests must be submitted in writing to the e-mail address listed below (no phone calls).
8. This year, we will be instituting category limitations. Please include an accurate description of the items you plan to sell so we can make sure to have a variety of vendors.
9. Please let us know if any of your items (or all of them) are particularly fragile.

I have read and understand the rules of conduct for this event. I agree to be responsible for all employees, agents & activities in my booth. Violation of these rules of conduct can result in my expulsion from this event. I agree to indemnify and hold harmless Greater New Orleans Pagan Pride Project and all the sponsors for any loss I, my agents, or business might suffer as a result of our participation in this event.
